BEGIN: 3:35 p.m.

1. Minutes approved with change to fourth bullet under #2 and first bullet under #3.
2. Discussed teacher-submitted question regarding Odyssey and MAP testing. Answer to be posted separately on PERA website on Edline.
3. Resumed discussion on how to write Student Learning Objectives (SLOs).
 - Looked again at templates from the following sources:
 - i. New York State
 - ii. Center for Assessment
 - iii. Essential Question and Evidence organizer from Anne Weerda
 - iv. Georgia Dept of Ed
 - v. Ohio Dept of Ed
 - vi. Growth Goal Sample Templates (Kids at the Core)
 - Discussed likely options for types of SLO targets
 - i. Percentage of expected growth attained (suitable for tests with known growth history)
 - ii. Percentage of students moving from below mastery to mastery
 - iii. Percentage of students growing half of the distance between baseline and mastery
4. Assigned activity to be completed by next PERA meeting (12/15/2014)
 - Review Growth Goal Sample Templates from Kids at the Core
 - Write an SLO goal using real or manufactured data that are or would be relevant to your teaching or administrative assignment
 - We will review goals at next meeting and provide peer feedback on goal quality.

END: 4:25 p.m.
